

The Intelligencer.

Office Nos. 45 and 47 Fourteenth Street.

Our brethren need not fear to come forward to the Republican club convention here to be too many of them. Wheeling can take care of them all.

For all the Republican club convention includes a special invitation to the Republican editors of the State, and the Intelligencer hopes they may all respond in person.

With the whole Internal Revenue establishment. We can raise all the money needed from customs duties, combining revenue with protection to American industry. This is the sound American doctrine.

It seems that the wary Democratic politicians have concluded that it would be unwise to educate the masses of the South. This is the meaning of their present opposition to the Blair educational bill. What will be the response of the people of the South?

The First Regiment responded promptly to the Governor's call and shows how convenient it is to have something of that sort on hand. The companies that went to the scene of trouble contain some of the best young men in the State, and some of the veterans of the war.

One of these days West Virginia will open her eyes to the propriety of encouraging the military spirit of her young men.

Such a protective tariff has cheapened every manufactured article, why does the President desire to let in foreign manufactures to break down home industries? The dollar spent at home runs a course and comes back to run another. The dollar spent abroad goes to stay. England, for example, does not buy one dollar's worth from us because of anything we sell her. She sells where she can and buys where she can buy cheapest. This is the indisputable fact.

DEMOCRATS ARE SO ANXIOUS for colored men in the North to get offices from the Republican party that they are trying to organize them against the Republican party. Now it happens that in certain States of this Union the Democrats have anticipated away in spite of immense colored populations. It happens, also, that in these States the colored men do not even enjoy their right to vote as they please and have their ballots counted as they are polled. Until the Democratic party rectifies this matter it can't really spare the time to coddle the dear colored man in the North.

Mr. JOSEPH H. CLOUSE, of St. Clairville, one of the intelligent wool-growers of the country. He has had exceptional advantage for comparative study of the wool question, for he has spent some time in the South and knows how cheaply the wool of that region is produced. The remarks of Mr. Clouse before the Baltimore Country Farmers' Institute, published in another column, are the result of the mature thought of a practical man, and will read reading.

When Mr. Clouse says that the wool trade should be up to the prohibitory price, he strikes the nail on the head. The question is whether we shall foster the wool industry of this country or of some other country. The wool-growers of other countries contribute nothing to the support of this Republic.

Is the Iron Northwest as disheartened persons looking for homes in Virginia. Why not in West Virginia, which has greater advantages to offer? The State of West Virginia has provided no machinery for such work, but the people can provide it for themselves. After the people make the start no doubt the State can easily be induced to take it up.

This leads the INTELLIGENCER to suggest to the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce can do the State a great service. Let the Chamber invite the business men of West Virginia, men who have lands to sell, and who are interested in the development of the State, to meet here at an early day so that what measures can be set on foot for attracting attention to West Virginia and inducing immigration. Such a meeting would probably result in a West Virginia development association that could be made of incalculable advantage to the State.

It is to the interest of our business men to build up the State, and to this end no action is needed but a systematic and vigorous effort. Now is the accepted time.

If we all pull together, regardless of politics and of everything that happened before Noah's flood, we can make something out of these hills and valleys and fertile plateaus.

Miraculous Escape of Passengers.

MUSKIE, IND., Jan. 30.—The eastbound Bee Line express due here at 4:30 this morning came thundering into the city at the rate of fifty miles an hour and crashed into a freight engine standing just east of the depot. The air brakes of the express were unmanageable and the train could not be checked. Fire immediately broke out in the palace cars. The city fire department was summoned and did all the service possible, but they are ruined. The cars are torn up for rods and the gates and station houses are smashed to the ground. Miraculously no one was hurt except the freight engineer, who is severely injured. The tracks will not be in a passable condition for at least ten hours.

Earthquake Shock on the Coast.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Jan. 30.—An earthquake shock was felt in this city at seven minutes before 1 o'clock this morning, which was observed by the majority of the inhabitants. The disturbances appeared to travel from south to north. It was violent enough to shake the dwellings and arouse the people. The noise continued seven or eight seconds, and resembled a clap of thunder, followed by long rumbling. No damage to property.

A Prominent Missionary Dead.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—The Rev. Brainard Kent died yesterday of paralysis. Mr. Kent was born April 25, 1802, in Dorset, Vermont. He was graduated from Williams College in 1824. In 1856 he came to Chicago and has since been actively engaged in missionary work among the railroad men.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

SOME IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

Transacted Yesterday—Mr. EVARTS to Speak on the Blair Educational Bill—A Resolution to Investigate the Public Printer—A Lively Debate on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—In the Senate today, Mr. Vest, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill removing the political disabilities of Andrew J. Lindsay, of Missouri. Passed.

The following bills were reported from the Committee on Public Lands and placed on the calendar:

For the judicial determination of the rights of the United States in lands granted to Florida for railroad purposes under the act of the 7th of May, 1876, to cancel certain reservations of lands on account of live oak on the Southern land district of Louisiana; to establish a public park at Pagosa Spring, Col.; to extend the laws of the United States over certain unorganized territory in the south of Kansas.

Mr. Hoar, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, reported a proposed Constitutional amendment as to the meeting of Congress, and said he would call for the amendment to-morrow to take it up and deal with it.

Mr. Sawyer, from the Postoffice Committee, reported back (adversely) the proposition to reduce letter postage to one cent. He stated in reply to Mr. Peck that the committee had no written report, but it did not think it prudent to attempt to reduce postage at present. The Postoffice Department was still running business, and it was thought better to wait until it was sustained before any other reduction of postage was attempted.

Mr. Plumb offered a resolution instructing the Postoffice Committee to inquire into the causes of the inefficient mail service, especially in the West and South; and presented a newspaper extract and a statement of the Postoffice Department, the result of a stupid attempt to make a record of economy.

Mr. Frye offered a resolution which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information touching the transportation of goods across the boundary line between the United States and Canada, in bond or otherwise; as to what methods are taken to protect the revenue derived from bonded goods passing the line; and to the Secretary of the Treasury for information touching the second clause of the sixth section of the Internal Revenue Act.

Mr. Frye also offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Foreign Relations to have prepared a statement embracing the following questions: A list of political organizations of the Dominion of Canada and its several provinces, including New Foundland; the treaties with the United States in regard to the Dominion and its several provinces; the commercial treaties established; the amount and value of commerce and trade between the United States and Canada; the amount and value of the transit rate on goods not subject to duty; the area and population of the Dominion of Canada and its provinces.

The resolution was laid over. The Senate then took up the Blair educational bill and Mr. Morgan addressed the Senate for the third time in opposition to it. He contended by expressing the hope that he never again should be called upon to speak on the Blair bill.

Mr. Evans took the floor and announced his intention to speak upon the bill to-day. Mr. Edmunds, in reply, announced that which was adopted, calling on the Commissioners of Agriculture for the reports made by Prof. Swenson on the subject of sugar making.

After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—In the House today, on motion of Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, the Senate bill was passed authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river below St. Charles, Mo.

Under the call of States, the following bills and resolutions were introduced and referred:

By Mr. Oates, of Alabama, to prevent aliens from pre-empting or entering homesteads, and to provide for leasing grazing lands for periods not exceeding ten years.

By Mr. Edwards, of Illinois, to place salt on the free list.

By Mr. Baker, of Illinois, directing the Committee on Postoffice and Postroads to inquire into the expediency of reducing the postage on seeds, fruit, and other articles to three cents the fee for money orders for five dollars or less.

By Mr. Lawrence, of Illinois, introducing a bill abolishing the tax on oleomargarine and endeavoring to have it referred to the Committee on Finance.

The bill was read and defeated by a vote of yeas 65, nays 100. The bill was referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

The Speaker pro tem, laid before the House a letter from President Prim, relating to the public printer, calling on him for information as to the discharges, justifying and explaining them; defense of the administration; and the charges that the Congressional work of the office is largely in arrears. He calls attention to the fact that during the forty-five days of the Fiftyeth Congress, the printing ordered by Congress had increased 40 per cent.

He ordered during a similar period of the Forty-ninth Congress, but states that the work has been promptly handled with a working force of 300 less employees than were on the staff of the printer at the beginning of the Forty-ninth Congress.

Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, regarded the letter as a conclusive and satisfactory reply to every criticism made against the printing office. He praised the reforms made by the printer, and said that the printer, as an instance of those reforms, stated that that gentleman bought printer's ink at 24 cents a pound, whereas his predecessors had paid 60 cents a pound. Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, as a friend of the printer, inquired whether the ink was of the same quality.

Mr. Richardson replied by quoting from a report of the present public printer, stating that the ink purchased by him did better work than that used by his predecessor. He stated that the difference between the Frick Company and the other members of the old syndicate in regard to the amount of money claimed by the printer, had been amicably adjusted. The formation of the syndicate now depends on a few outside operators who have not yet agreed to come into the combination.

Late to-night it was learned that to-day's meeting of the coke syndicate was practically formed. J. W. Moore, who represented the outside producers, promised that they would all come in. The papers were drawn up for the pool and at a meeting next Thursday will be signed. The effect of the new syndicate will be to sustain prices, control production and make wages uniform. The name of the organization will be the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Coal and Coke Exchange.

A Brutal Husband.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Julia Kenney was severely beaten by her drunken husband Saturday night. The husband, who is named, was arrested and committed to the county jail. The wife was taken to the hospital and is recovering.

Several Democrats inquired the name of the soldier to whom Mr. Orchard referred, but the gentleman declined to reveal it at present.

Mr. Outchou said that the Public Printer's report gave information about the printing of the Blair educational bill, but just now he would like to know why the Public Printer selected the middle of January to turn these Blair educational women into the street in order that he

THE GOVERNOR'S ORDER REVOKED.

And the State Troops Ordered Home, Before Reaching Their Destination—Everything Quiet on the Kentucky Border at Present—Action of the Militia.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Jan. 30.—The vendetta between the Hatfields of Logan county, this State, and the McCoys of Pike county, Kentucky, is settled for the present. The agent, whom Governor Wilson sent to Logan county some days since, returned this afternoon, and reported the belligerents on both sides have disbanded and the trouble ended. Governor Wilson has countermanded the order calling out the military and ordered the Goff and Auburn Guards, who were en route for this city for the purpose of going to the frontier, to return to their respective homes. Governor Wilson so notified Governor Buckner, of Kentucky.

THE SOLDIER BOYS.

How They Responded Quickly and Cheerfully to the Governor's Call.

The organized companies in the State deserve a great deal of credit for the promptness with which they tendered their services to the State authorities.

The Kanawha Riflemen and the Auburn Guards and Goff Guards, of Ritchie county, were the first to volunteer. The services of the two latter were immediately accepted by the Governor, and the Kanawha Riflemen, of Marion county, telegraphed the Governor that they were at the service of the State. Last night before Col. R. H. Freer, of the First Regiment, received the order countermanding the call, he sent the following dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER:

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Jan. 30. To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

The Goff Guards with thirty-five men and the Auburn Guards with forty men left Parkersburg at 5 p. m. for Parkersburg. The men are in fine condition and have responded cheerfully and promptly to the Governor's call. They expect to leave for Charleston to-morrow morning.
